

Evangeline Markou

Evangeline Markou is a Senior Researcher at the Institute of Historical Research (IHR), Section of Greek and Roman Antiquity (KERA) of the National Hellenic Research Foundation (NHRF) in Athens (2009-today).

She studied History and Archaeology at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (1993-1997) and obtained her M.Phil (1998-2000) and Ph.D. (2001-2006) from the University of Sorbonne - Paris IV in History and Civilisation of the Antiquity with a fellowship from the A.G. Leventis Foundation. Her Ph.D subject was the gold coinage of the kings of Cyprus of the Classical period that has been published in 2011 (ΜΕΛΕΤΗΜΑΤΑ 64).

She worked at the Fitzwilliam Museum of Cambridge (2004-2005) and at the Numismatic Museum of Athens (2005-2007) as responsible for the digital documentation of the numismatic collections and she taught Undergraduate and Postgraduate courses on ancient numismatics, ancient history and archaeology as an Adjunct Lecturer at the University of Cyprus (2008-2009), the Open University of Cyprus (2008-2012, 2015-2016), the Hellenic Open University (2017-today) and the University of the Aegean (2014-2018) as Course Coordinator. In 2019 she was the 65th Annual Eric P. Newman Visiting Scholar at the Graduate Summer Seminar in Numismatics of the American Numismatic Society (New York).

Her research, presented in numerous congresses and published in scientific papers, is focused on the numismatic production of the kings of Cyprus and questions related to the history of Cyprus during the Archaic and Classical periods.

She has collaborated as a researcher in numerous projects that have received EU and National funding. In the National Hellenic Research Foundation, Institute of Historical Research, since 2013, E. Markou created, has been managing and updating the content of the website Kyprios Character, dedicated to the Cypriote archaeology, history and especially numismatics. Since 2018 she is the scientific collaborator of the research project "Cypriot Connectivity in the Mediterranean from the Late Bronze Age to the End of the Classical Period (CyCoMed)".

Full CV:

<http://www.eie.gr/nhrf/institutes/igra/cvs/cv-markou-en.pdf>

<https://eie.academia.edu/EvangelineMarkou>