

Athens, 26 / 1 / 2021

TWO AWARDS OF THE ACADEMY OF ATHENS FOR THE INSTITUTE OF HISTORICAL RESEARCH

In 2020 the Institute of Historical Research received two awards of the Section of Letters and Fine Arts of the Academy of Athens for two of its publications.

The Georgios P. Oeconomou award for a study devoted to the History and Archaeology of Macedonia, to Mrs Sophia Kremydi for her book «Autonomous' Coinages under the Late Antigonids», Meletemata 79, (Athens 2018).

and

The Heleni and Panos Psimenos award for a study devoted to contemporary Greek History or Philology from 1669 onwards, to Mrs Eftychia Liata for her book «Rigged from the little we had... The frigate ship Timoleon during the Greek Revolution 1821», Historical Library of the 1821 Revolution no. 4, (Athens 2020).