AUREUS. Volume dedicated to Professor Evangelos K. Chrysos

Institute of Historical Research / NHRF, Section of Byzantine Research, Athens 2014, 904 pages

The presentation of the volume AUREUS, dedicated to the distinguished byzantinologist and professor emeritus of the University of Athens, Evangelos K. Chrysos, was held on November 24 at the National Hellenic Research Foundation. Prof. Ev. Chrysos, being a doctor of the Universities of Bonn and Thessaloniki, taught Byzantine History at the Universities of Ioannina, Cyprus and Athens, served as Director of the Institute of Byzantine Research at the National Hellenic Research Foundation and Secretary General of the Foundation of the Hellenic Parliament for Parliamentarism and Democracy.

The volume comprises 53 papers written by students, colleagues and collaborators of Prof. Chrysos and was published by the Institute of Historical Research of the National Hellenic Research Foundation, the publication having been funded by the Alexander S. Onassis Public Benefit Foundation. Coming from eleven countries (Greece, Austria, Serbia, France, Bulgaria, Germany, Italy, Cyprus, Russia, Israel and the U.S.A) the authors cover a wide spectrum of research fields pertaining to many facets of Byzantine history and civilization, from the early to the post-Byzantine era, while in some cases the authors discuss the effects of Byzantium and of Byzantine thought on the modern era.

The initiative for the publication and editing of the volume of 904 pages was taken by professors Taxiarchis G. Kolias and Konstantinos G. Pitsakis with the collaboration of Dr. Catherine Synellis, one of Ev. Chrysos's students.
