

Call for an expression of interest aiming at the recruitment of 2 fulltime researchers for the project HEPHAESTUS FP-7

Deadline for the submission of applications :July 1, 20.00 Athens local time

The project Hephaestus (Hellenic Philosophy, History and Environmental Science Teaching Under Scrutiny, Seventh Framework Programme Regpot-2008-1) run by the Programme of History, Philosophy and Didactics of Science and Technology (HPDST) of the Hellenic Research Foundation is launching the present call for expression of interest with the aim of recruiting 2 fulltime researchers. The maximum duration for the contract is 2 years.

- FIELDS

One (1) position in the field of the History of Science in Byzantium

One (1) position in the field of Philosophy of Modern Physics

- CONDITIONS

Qualification/training:

A PhD in the appropriate field of research

At least two (2) publications in internationally recognized journals published after the completion of the PhD

Professional experience:

Three years of professional experience including at least one year of experience in a educational/research institution in a country other than Greece. The candidates should currently work outside Greece.

Nationality:

According to the regulations of the project candidates will have to be Greek nationals.

Language:

Very good knowledge of an official language of the EU and satisfactory knowledge of a second Community language is required other than Greek. The knowledge of both English and French will be regarded as an advantage.

Age:

There is no age limit.

- THE PROCEDURE

Applications will be examined by a Committee, which will draw up a list of eligible candidates for each position. The Committee members will be able to choose, from these lists, the candidates of their choice for possible interviews or recruitment.

- DEADLINE FOR THE SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS

The deadline to deposit your candidature is fixed at July 1 at 20.00 Athens local time. Beyond this deadline no applications will be accepted.